

Dear Victor,

I'm really angry and disappointed that I won't be able to go to your graduation this June just because I'm not 18. I was really excited to get to see you. School is almost out, which is awesome. But it is going to be weird not having you around during the summer. Especially when we go camping or to lakes. Not having you around now is still weird. I hope you know how much we all miss you, even though you can be very annoying. I miss you a lot and hope to see you in August when our aunt gets married.

Love,
Suly

P.S. I hope bootcamp isn't as bad as I picture it in my mind.
